

Local plastic surgeon attends Mentor Corp. conference

Fairhope native Dr. Scott Ennis and his Destin, Fla., plastic surgery partner Dr. William Burden, joined 25 U.S. plastic surgeons for the Leadership, Experience in Augmentation and Development program held by Mentor Corp., a leader in breast implant technology.

The group will advise Mentor Corp. on product development and practice management systems. The meeting in Denver involved discussion of breast enhancement procedures, facial surgery and wound-closure technology.